

HCCIAssist™ AI Privacy Notice

Effective Date: April 14th, 2025

This notice gives you information on how Home Centered Care Institute (“HCCI,” “we,” “us,” “our”) protects your data in our use of HCCIAssist™, HCCI’s AI tool. This notice is supplementary to our Privacy Policy, which you can find here.

HCCIAssist™ is an AI-driven chatbot tool which will answer user’s questions using information and resources provided solely by HCCIAssist™. HCCI will not input personal data into HCCIAssist™.

The information provided by HCCIAssist™ is for informational and educational purposes only. The information provided by HCCIAssist™ is not medical advice and is not intended to be used to diagnose, cure, or treat any medical condition. Users should be mindful of what information they input into HCCIAssist™ and should not input personal data or personal health information into HCCIAssist™. Only HCCI processes data that is input through HCCIAssist™. HCCI is not liable for actions taken as a result of your use of HCCIAssist™. HCCI cannot guarantee the confidentiality of personal data or personal health information that you input into HCCIAssist™, and therefore, you agree to indemnify HCCI for any claim or action arising out of the use of personal data and/or personal health information (PHI) that arises as a result.

This policy may change from time to time. HCCI will post any updates to this policy on its website. You should make sure to check HCCI’s website for any updates to this policy or the general Privacy Policy.
